SCHOOL BILL IS RIDDLED

Senate Orders It to Be Sent to the Printer.

The Supervisors of San Francisco Against Quarantine.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 8.—Immediately after the reading of the Journal this morning the Senate took up the educational bill (S. B. 5) in accordance with the motion of yesterday to make it the special order.

A number of amendments were agreed to, and the bill was then ordered sent to the printer, Senator Smith saying that it had been riddled so effectively that it was desired to see what the result looked like.

President pro tem. Flint announced the following as the committee to visit the Home for the Feeble Minded at Glen Ellen and the State Hospital at Napa: From Committee on Finance, Luchinger, Flint and Leavitt; from Health Committee, Rowell, Muenster and Smith of Los Angeles.

A resolution from the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco, asking the Senate not to pass the bill appropriating $100,000 for establishing a state quarantine, was read and ordered filed.

Senator Luchinger moved that the motion to reconsider the vote whereby the Senate passed A. B. 9 yesterday be postponed to next legislative day. The motion prevailed by the vote of 19 to 15.

Senators Delahave, Bettman and O'Neil asked for and were granted leave of absence until 11 o'clock Monday. Senator Ashe was excused until 2 o'clock of the same day.

Senator Flint introduced a bill to provide for the appointment by the Governor of five trustees to have charge of the Monterey Custom House. The trustees are to serve without compensation and are authorized to receive from the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West the possession and control of the property and to expend the sum of $4,000 in preserving and repairing the same.

The Senate passed A. B. 116, relating to property exempt from execution. Recess until 2 P. M.

SUICIDE LEFT A WIFE.

Said That Miss O'Neil Helped Him Spend His Money.

Tried to Kill the Girl Because She Jilted Him.

The inquest on Bert Henderson, the suicide and would-be murderer, has been set for 8 o'clock tomorrow night. Thus far Coroner Mehrmann has received no reply to the telegraphic communication sent to a sister of the decedent residing in Michigan. Nor has the Coroner been able to adduce any facts aside from those given publicly in yesterday's TRIBUNE.

On the other hand, however, some important facts have been obtained by a TRIBUNE man from outside sources. Mr. Bailey, residing in Alameda, worked for some time with Henderson at the Pacific Telephone Company's place in San Francisco, he being employed at switchboard work.

Bailey states that the dead man had not been working since last Saturday; that something appeared to be weighing heavily upon Henderson's mind. He seemed gloomy and sad and quiet.

Henderson, moreover, had frequently assailed Fannie O'Neil's character, claiming that he had no further use for her; that he had come here with considerable money, and that the "girl," as he used to characterize her, had helped him spend it all, and that she then threw off on him for a real estate man. He claimed to have known Miss O'Neil for some time.

From words dropped here and there it has also been learned that Henderson left a wife somewhere in the East.

Miss O'Neil, who was shot by Henderson in a room in the Ross House, will recover.

CARRIE CALLED A COWARD.

Mrs. Nation Weakens on a Proposed Raid.

Caved Down the Bank By Tempting Offers to Lecture.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. TOPEKA, Kan., Feb. 8.—Mrs. Nation displayed the white feather last night at a meeting of thirty of her followers, who, armed with hatchets, had gathered in secret to arrange a night raid on Topeka joints.

Several male students at Washington College were to have come to town armed after midnight and personally take part in the raid and also see that the crusaders were not molested.

The excitement at the meeting was intense, the women planning minutely for the raid.

It was decided to saunter out at 3 o'clock in the morning and demolish every joint in town.

Suddenly, when everything seemed satisfactorily arranged for a terrific onslaught, Mrs. Nation began putting on her wraps and said she was going home.

Instantly her followers were in an uproar. Mingled with expressions of surprise at her quick change of front came words of condemnation.

"Finally one woman, who had spent a greater part of the day collecting hatchets and soliciting aid of the crusaders, rushed to where Mrs. Nation stood in the center of a group, and shaking her in the Wichita lady's face shouted excitedly: 'You are a coward, Mrs. Nation, you are a coward!'

"I am not a coward," said Mrs. Nation with emphasis. "I will go this minute with any one woman, and smash a joint." A dozen voices were raised: "I'll go; I'll go," and for a moment it looked as if an instant raid would result. But Mrs. Nation, soon collecting herself, turned to her followers, told them that she was tired, "that the Lord did not wish her to go tonight," and without further ado left the room.

While the women waited to wonder at their leader's latest move Mrs. Nation, accompanied alone by a reporter, made the rounds of the joints to satisfy herself that all were closed. The joints, apparently anticipating a raid, had closed and barricaded their doors, and at midnight Mrs. Nation went to her home.

During the evening Mrs. Nation was questioned about her Chicago trip, which she had planned for next week, but she could tell nothing definite about it.

"I will go when the Lord directs me," she said. "At present He wants me to remain here."

She said, however, that she should go to Kansas City today to fill her date there. "Not to smash, but simply to lecture," she said.

Some of the volunteer members of Mrs. Nation's band of crusaders claim that their leader has been induced to give up the smashing of joints in order to go on a lecture tour. Mrs. Nation is expected to speak in Kansas City, Omaha, Sioux City, Des Moines and Chicago, and she has refused many offers from other places.

MRS. NATION IN MERRY MOOD. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 8.—A special to the Star from Topeka says:

Mrs. Nation, speaking today of the storm of reproaches that had been directed against her because of her refusal to lead last night's raid, said:

"It was beautiful to see how angry they were. Why, do you know they wanted to scratch my eyes and pull my hair for not going out with them. It was a delicious half hour. I never was so happy in my life. I would rather die at the hands of these indignant women than sallow keepers."

Mrs. Nation burst into a hearty laugh and she held her sides and fairly shook with merriment. Then she grew sober once more and said:

"I don't like anything by the indignation of these women, but Kansas gains a great deal. When I first came here I had to do all the talking, but you know last night I had to stand back and listen to them scolding me. Why, it was the greatest surprise I ever had. They were mad, clean mad all the way through because I would not help them smash. That's turning the tables, isn't it?"

"Don't blame them for calling me a coward. I confess I was almost a coward when I saw the indignation of those women. Verily it was demonstrated that 'Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned,'" and Mrs. Nation went off into another paroxysm of laughter. But the stubborn refusal of Mrs. Nation to lead the women was no laughing matter to them last night and it is not today. They are thoroughly indignant.

AWAIT KING'S SPEECH

Eagerness to Learn His Views on Transvaal Question.

Relief for the Poor One of Edward's Topics.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, Feb. 8.—The Cabinet at today's meeting will presumably settle the terms of King Edward's speech at the opening of his first Parliament, February 14th, which may be expected to partially repeat His Majesty's speech to the Privy Council on his accession day, expressing thanks for the condolences and expressions of loyalty, referring to his deep sense of the responsibility of his new position and announcing his determination to work for the welfare of all classes.

War funds and legislation to promote funds for the poor will be among the topics.

The King's references to foreign relations and the Transvaal are especially eagerly awaited.

M'NEAR BRINGS SUIT AGAINST WATKINSON.

Charges of Fraud and Undue Influence to Be Investigated.

F. W. McNear sued J. H. T. Watkinson to settle his title to 4,650 shares of North Buena Vista Oil Company stock, 40,000 shares of California Standard Oil Company stock and 11,402 shares of Giant Oil Company stock.

Watkinson transferred this stock to McNear on November 26, 1900, but afterward asserted that the transfer was made on account of fraud and undue influence exercised by McNear and P. E. Bowles.

McNear alleged that an adequate consideration was given.

He denied the claim of the California Standard and Giant companies that he holds the stock in trust for them.

BOERS BEATEN.

Supplies and Cattle Captured By the British.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, Feb. 8.—Lord Kitchener reported to the War Office under date of Pretoria, February 7th, as follows: "The British column destroyed supplies at Pietrusburg and brought in 200 horses and cattle."

"De Wet is reported still north of Smithfield, moving eastward with a detachment of which crossed the line at Pompey Siding."

"Mythen reports from Lillfontein, east of Vryburg, that he scattered the enemy there and captured twelve wagons and cattle. French is near Ermelo."

A Boer force pressing southward has been repulsed at Reddersburg. The losses were insignificant.

MARTIN MURPHY WINS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. SAN JOSE, Feb. 8.—Judge Rhodes today rendered his decision in the suit of Martin Murphy against A. C. Col, in favor of Murphy. This case is of especial interest as it involves the office of County Auditor. Col, Republican, is the present incumbent, holding his office by virtue of appointment of the Board of Supervisors. Murphy, Democrat, claims it by virtue of the recent election.

SENATE WORRIED BY CUBA

That Problem Is Much More Involved Than Philippines.

Congressional Action at This Session Out of the Question.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Reports to the effect that Republican members of the Senate have formulated definite plans for legislation during the present session of Congress on the Cuba and Philippine matters, are premature, but the leaders are engaged in an earnest effort to find a solution of the difficulties which beset them.

The Cuban problem offers far greater intricacies than the Philippine, and is looked upon as liable to call for much prompter action. There is a general disposition to accept the Spooner bill as a sufficient pronouncement on the Philippine question, and it is now the plan to have Senator Lodge, chairman of the Philippine Committee, propose this bill, with possibly some modifications, as an amendment to the army appropriation bill.

Senator Platt of Connecticut, chairman of the Committee on Relations with Cuba, is also contemplating the propriety and expediency of presenting an amendment to the army bill covering the Philippine question, and he, with other lawyers of the Senate, is giving much attention to the subject.

Hope of securing Congressional action on the Cuban question at the present session has been quite definitely abandoned, and the most that is hoped for is to secure a declaration of the attitude of this country toward Cuba which would be a guide to the President during the Congressional interim. The present plan is to try to secure the incorporation of such a declaration in the army appropriation bill as the surest way of getting it through.

BONDS OF THE S. P.

How the Deal Will Be Financed in New York.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—It was learned today on good authority that the purchase of Southern Pacific is to be financed by an issuance of $40,000,000 four per cent ten year convertible gold bonds underwritten by Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

They can be converted at the option of the holder into common stock of the railroad company any time before May 1, 1906, and are redeemable on any interest day after that date, at the option of the company, at a premium of 2 1/2 per cent.

The bonds will be offered to stockholders for subscription at par.

SNOW DEEP IN KANSAS.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. KANSAS CITY, Mo., Feb. 8.—The heaviest snowfall of the winter, amounting to over seven inches and still falling at noon, prevails in Kansas. Wheat fields are in excellent condition. A moderate north wind and a high temperature accompany the storm.

In this city heavy snow has been falling since early this morning.

AN INDIANA SMASHER.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. AUBURN, Ind., Feb. 8.—Mrs. Tom Cress, whose husband is foreman in the Baltimore and Ohio shops at Garrett, demolished the handsome new plate glass front of Peter Rehler's saloon with a hatchet. She had repeatedly warned Mr. Rehler not to sell to her husband, who was in jail at the time.

STEAM SUGAR FLEET.

Japanese and Negro Laborers Making Trouble.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. HONOLULU, T. H., Jan. 30.—(Via San Francisco Feb. 5.)—The Supreme Court has declared the Hawaiian merchandise license law to be unconstitutional, leaving the Territory without any law of the kind, until the Legislature meets and enacts a new one. The old law provided for an importation license. This was held to be in conflict with the interstate commerce laws. The decision was rendered in an action against Theodore H. Davies & Co., involving license fees amounting to $5,378.90, or three-eighths of 1 per cent of the value of imported goods sold by the firm in a year.

Honolulu has seen the last of the round-the-Horn fleet of sailing sugar vessels. This year the sugar crop goes to New York in the large new steamers of the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company. A large fleet of sailing vessels has been ordered to take the sugar round the Horn. It is reported that the new company will put eleven large steamships, all new, on its New York-Honolulu-San Francisco line, running a steamer every two weeks, to make the trip from New York here in fifty-eight days, via San Francisco.

The failure of President McKinley to appoint a Circuit Judge to succeed Judge Billman, who resigned two months ago, has resulted in a serious overcrowding of the court calendar. When Judge Humphreys opens the February term of the court on the 4th of next month he will have twice as much new criminal business on the calendar as he can attend to during the term.

News of the death of Queen Victoria was brought here by the steamer Bonoma on the 30th. Though expected, the news that the aged Queen had passed away profoundly shocked the community. Flags were at once placed at half-mast and a number of business houses closed.

Many Japanese and native workmen on the Island of Maui have formed an association on the lines of some American unions and they have started a series of strikes. The plantation managers have been anticipating trouble among the Japanese for some months and are anxious to supersede them with other laborers. Japanese who strike are usually very promptly discharged.

The twenty-three Tennessee negroes recently brought here have become dissatisfied and have left their work. They are said to be city men of an undesirable class and have proved an undesirable importation. They claim $28 a month, with quarters, fuel, etc., free.

The last lot of negroes and Porto Ricans have proved a better class and are working satisfactorily. Sixty Portuguese who came here from New England are also well liked by their employers. The steamship Zealandia on her next trip will bring about 700 of these. She will go south after leaving San Francisco and take them direct from Los Angeles.

TOOK A FIEND'S REVENGE

Baku Fire Started By a Discharged Employee.

Scene of Horror as the Burning Victims Fled.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 8.—Dispatches from Baku say all the available hospitals are filled with people injured by the naphtha fire, while the sheds on the fair grounds are filled by those made homeless by the conflagration.

The fire broke out in the evening at meal time and spread so rapidly that many people were unable to escape from their homes. The fire also cut off the retreat of the spectators, thirty of whom perished.

It is believed that the conflagration was started by a discharged employee for the purpose of revenge, and it is further reported that the naphtha reservoirs had been perviously filled with water, which, in overflowing, carried the flaming fluid over the town, involving all the houses as far as Police street. The stream of people were seen attempting to escape while burning like torches. The total number of victims is not ascertainable at present.

Big Railroad Deal On.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Officials of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad in Chicago refuse either to confirm or deny a report telegraphed from St. Joseph, Mo., that plans were being perfected for the absorption of the St. Joseph and Grand Island Road by the Burlington. The announcement to that effect, they say, is news to them.

These bills were introduced by the Committee on Election Laws, and are intended to pave the way for a primary election law.

TO CLEAR UP WATER RIGHTS.

Melick Introduces an Amendment in the Assembly.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 8.—Melick introduced in the Assembly this morning a constitutional amendment intended to clear up the question of water rights. The amendment is as follows:

"The water of all streams shall forever remain subject to public control. Beneficial use shall be the basis, the measure and the limit of all rights to water. The right to water for irrigation rests in the user and becomes appertinent to the land irrigated. Water for irrigation is hereby declared to be a natural want."

In explanation of his amendment, Mr. Melick said:

"The object of this amendment is to propose a method for clearing up the question of water rights in California. The idea was embodied in the platform of the National Irrigation Association at its session in Chicago and endorsed by the California Water and Forest Society. The amendment has the same wording as the amendment which was drawn for Montana and which is now before that State. If these fundamental principles could be engrafted on our Constitution and then provision made by statute for the appointment of water commissioners to apportion water among users as in Colorado and Wyoming, entangling litigation over water rights would cease or be lessened as it has in those States."

Fisk's bill so amending the divorce laws that divorced persons need not wait one year after obtaining a decree of divorce before marrying came up as a special order for final passage and met with much opposition. It was finally defeated by a vote of 22 yeas to 38 yeas. Fisk changed his vote and gave notice that on the next legislative day he would move to reconsider the vote by which the bill was denied passage.

A. L. FISH APPEARS IN A FUNNY ROLE.

Lawyers Make Sport of the Ludicrous Statements of Witness.

Councilman Mott loomed up at the trial of the water case with a face like a harvest moon and a grin that would make the fortune of a circus clown.

A. L. Fish resumed telling what he did not know about the valuation of the component parts of the Alvarado plant.

"How much concrete did you estimate altogether at Alvarado?"

"10,223 cubic feet."

"Will you undertake to say there are not 60,000 cubic feet of concrete in the foundations of the engine and boiler alone?"

"I can tell you what I estimated—"

"I don't care what you estimated; will you undertake to say there is not 60,000 feet of concrete in the foundations alone?"

"No."

"What did you assume that sand and gravel could be delivered at Alvarado for?"

"I assumed that it could be laid down there for $2 a yard."

"Where would you get it for $2 a yard?"

"I understood you could get it anywhere around there."

"Don't you know that all the gravel in that concrete was bought in Santa Clara county and shipped to Alvarado by rail and hauled from there to the pumping works?"

"No."

"Well, it cost $1 a yard at the pit in Santa Clara county, assuming that to be true, how much would it cost to dig it out, haul it to the station, load it on a car, bring it to Alvarado and deliver it at the plant?"

The witness figured out that the gravel would cost nearly $5 per yard laid down at Alvarado.

"Now figure out what a yard of concrete would cost?"

The witness excited a good deal of merriment in his attempts to figure out the proportion of concrete. He finally figured out the cost of the material in a yard of concrete laid down at the works, allowing $3.25 a barrel for cement, at $3.75 per barrel, and the cost of mixing and laying.

"Do you undertake to say that good concrete can be mixed and properly laid anywhere in this county for less than $2 a yard?"

"I have had it done for a good deal less."

"Was it mixed and laid under your direction?"

"It had to be done; I paid for it."

"It was done under contract, was it not? You paid the contract price, but the mixing and laying was done under direction of the contractor?"

"Yes."

A SCALY ESTIMATE.

Having finished with laying concrete, which he began mixing by putting four and a fraction barrels of cement in a yard of mixture and ended by reducing the amount to a fraction over one barrel, Fish branched out as a pipe expert.

He estimated the cost of laying two-inch pipe, including price of pipe, trenching, laying and back filling, at 15 cents a foot. He estimated that one man could trench, lay and cover 100 feet of two-inch pipe a day.

"Did you ever know of a man trenching, laying and back filling 100 feet of two-inch pipe in a day?" asked McCutcheon.

"No, but I would take a contract on that basis."

"Did you ever know of a contract being taken to trench, lay and back fill two-inch pipe without including the cost of the pipe, for less than 8 cents a foot?"

"I would take a contract to do it for less."

"I didn't ask you what you would undertake to do; I ask if you ever knew of a contract being let for less than 8 cents or as low as 8 cents a foot for the labor alone of trenching, laying and backfilling two-inch pipe?"

"I do not."

A VERY BIG FISH STORY.

"What would be the size of the trench ordinarily dug for two-inch pipe?"

"A foot wide and 2 1/2 feet deep."

"Did you ever see a trench of those dimensions?"

"I think I have."

"How many cubic feet of material would a man have to dig and shovel out of a trench of that size 100 feet long?"

"250 feet."

"After he had dug and shoveled it out, he would have to put the pipe together and lay it and then shovel this 250 feet of material back in the trench again?"

"Yes."

"Twice 250 makes 500 cubic feet; how many yards is that?"

"About 14."

"Are you quite sure of your figures?"

"Hoh! an—I have made a mistake; it is nine yards."

"Try again, Mr. Fish."

"Twenty-seven will go into 250 nine times and a little over."

"But after the 250 has been dug and shoveled out, it has to be shoveled in. That makes 500 feet."

"Shoveling it back would be comparatively easy."

"Would you tamp it in?"

"Very little."

"How much would you pay a man for this work?"

"You can get a good man for $3 a day."

"Would he be a skilled or an unskilled laborer?"

"He would be a good man."

"I should think he would," remarked McCutcheon. "You said some weighing as much as 25 pounds were some-

Frank Gallagher, a healthy looking individual, stood in the dock charged with beating Officers Woods and McSorley had caught him in the act. He pleaded not guilty, but Police Judge Smith found him otherwise.

"What is your occupation?" asked the dignified Judge.

"Oh? What's that cher say?" was the response.

"What have you been doing?" asked His Honor.

"Well, I've been working at the Union Iron Works up to a week ago, sec," retorted the prisoner at bar.

"There they is, and I guess dat shows it, oh?" said the accused in the same stolid tone.

Judge Smith, Clerk Hennessy and Bailiff Mitchell closely inspected the hands.

"Been working with iron all right," ejaculated Clerk Hennessy. "You can see that plainly. But such lily white hands as those never saw a sledge, turned a wheel or lifted a bar of iron. They were a pair of the neatest and most perfectly shaped hands that any Police could wish for."

Gallagher will be sentenced tomorrow.

LIVELY RUNAWAY ON SAN LEANDRO STREET.

SAN LEANDRO, Feb. 8.—A lively runaway stirred up the town for a little while early Wednesday morning. "Prof." Gasuth Morillo was driving a team of spirited horses that were harnessed to a large, heavy wagon. He was driving from Stone's farm toward San Leandro when the animals became unmanageable, threw the driver, who luckily escaped with but a few bruises, out of the wagon, and made a flying trip about town. They tore down one street and up the other, and the greatest wonder is that some one was not injured.

Finally the animals ran about of A. Goachan's sign and one was thrown to the ground. One of the boys about town stopped the runaways. Considerable damage was done to the wagon. The horses were but slightly injured.

FRUITVALE

FRUITVALE, Feb. 8.—Wednesday night the members of Golden Link Lodge No. 105 entertained their friends at the Fruitvale Masonic Hall. An informal musical and literary program was rendered, followed by a social dance and banquet. The affair was a grand success throughout. The committee in charge was as follows: Miss M. Hirdman, chairman; Mrs. Cronvick and Misses G. Jackson, W. Campbell and L. Zimmerman. George Drevort acted as floor manager.

G. R. Warren is slowly improving, but is not yet able to be out.

Charles H. Vincery and daughter Nellie of Santa Cruz spent Wednesday in town with friends.

THE ROOT OF THE MATTER

Ho Cured Himself of Serious Stomach Trouble Down to First Principles.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent Eastern cities by too close attention to business, too little exercise and too many club dinners, finally began to pay nature's tax, leveled in the form of chronic stomach trouble; the failure of his digestion brought about a nervous irritability, it was impossible to apply himself to his daily business and finally deranging the kidneys and heart.

His own words he says: "I consulted one physician after another and each one seemed to understand my case, but all the same they each failed to bring about the return of my former digestion, appetite and vigor. For two years I went from doctor to doctor, tried one sanitarium to another, I gave up smoking, I quit coffee and even resounded my daily glass or two of beer, but without any marked improvement. Friends had often advised me to try a well-known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy, but never took any stock in advertised medicine nor could believe a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch my case.

To make a long story short, I finally bought a cure-all medicine, one of the nearest drug store and took two or three tablets after each meal and occasionally a tablet between meals, when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort.

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health and before the two packages were gone I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was going to cure completely and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and clear and no one would suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia.

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy asking for information as to what the tablets contained and they replied that the principal ingredients were active poisons (government test) malt diastase and other natural digestives, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach.

The root of the matter is this, the digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, give the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate and the nerves and whole system receive the nourishment which can only come from food; stimulants and nerve tonics never give real strength, they give a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction. Every drop of blood, every nerve and tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action and complete digestion by the regular use of so good and wholesome a remedy as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, you will have no need of nerve tonics and stimulants.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years, yet probably every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain now sells them and consider them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach troubles.

HAYWARDS TRUSTEES HOLD REGULAR MEETING.

HAYWARDS, Feb. 8.—Haywards Parlor No. 122, Native Daughters of the Golden West, was organized Wednesday evening in the Native Sons' Hall. This parlor is the second largest in Alameda county. Officers for the ensuing term were elected, and were then installed by Grand Past President Miss Mary Tillman, assisted by Mrs. J. Lumbard. The Parlor has a charter membership of forty-one. The following were elected and installed, after which the members and invited guests retired to the banquet hall and partook of a fine spread: Past president, Mrs. L. M. Hurd; president, Mrs. K. L. Cassidy; first vice-president, Mrs. A. J. Powell; second vice-president, Mrs. J. D. Smalley; third vice-president, Miss Anna May; recording secretary, Miss Alice Garretson; financial secretary, Miss Clara Walpert; treasurer, Miss Lizzie Mendez; marshal, Miss Elsie Lavelle; outside sentinel, Miss Lena Hardin; inside sentinel, Miss Jessie Hill; trustees, Messrs. The bill post ordinance was then read and upon adoption passed to print. The matter of licensing auctioneers was brought up, but no action was taken. The matter was dropped.

The Trustees then unanimously decided to have Castro street graded from B street to the northerly limit. The meeting then adjourned.

ROUTINE WORK OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

The regular meeting of the City Council was very brief last evening.

The Chief of Police reported for the month of January that the average number of prisoners in the city prison had been 25; meals furnished 1,511; cost of provisions for city prison, $66.67.

A resolution to pay the claims of sick firemen was referred to the auditing and finance committee.

A petition to construct a stairway into the basement of the Blake & Moffitt building at 420 Eighth street was referred to the Street Committee.

The petition of John P. Commins to remove four trees from the front of 870 East Twelfth street was referred to the Street Committee.

The matter of naming the election officers and adopting the election law was laid over until Saturday night. The Council adjourned and met as a Committee of the Whole to discuss the Washington street opening matter.

SCHOOL TEACHERS MUST WAIT FOR THEIR PAY.

It looks now as if some of the High School teachers will not get their full pay until May. The High School fund, like some others, is rather in arrears.

Treasurer Clipp made it a point to pay up the teachers of the school on the 23rd of December, as it was near Christmas and the teachers desired the money. About $700 was paid out in excess of the money he had on hand in that fund that he had to put the warrants in the safe as cash.

During the month of March there will probably be a few warrants paid out and a few also on the 1st of April. But as stated the full payment point will not be reached till May.

NON-PARTISANS OF BERKELEY NAME TICKET.

BERKELEY, Feb. 8.—The Non-Partisan Municipal Convention last night named Charles T. Kerns as its candidate for Town Marshal and succeeded in nominating M. L. Hanson for Town Clerk by a majority of only seven votes. A. S. Anderson came up from West Berkeley and amazed the convention by taking 62 votes to Hanson's 63. After the failure of an attempt to leave the nomination vacant the expected fight over the Marshal's office failed to materialize and Kerns was named without opposition.

The other nominees were: Assessor, Isaac Wells; Treasurer, John Squires; Trustees—Second Ward, Thomas Rickard; Fourth Ward, Morgan Ryder; Sixth Ward, Thomas Dowd; School Directors—Second Ward, Robert H. Deland; Fourth Ward, Dr. W. Allen; Sixth Ward, John Donohue; Library Trustees—At large, A. W. Naylor, Charles L. Biedenbach, H. D. Irwin, Thomas Winter, Charles Wiggin. An executive committee was selected consisting of Walter J. Mortimer, Harry J. Squires, Thomas Anderson, Douglas Keith, H. Greig, Richard Lloyd, D. S. Adams, A. M. Macdonald, D. F. Fawcett, F. B. Thompson, Charles Spear, John Tacey, W. J. Curtis and D. N. Newell. The purity of elections committee consists of Douglas Keith, Richard Lloyd, F. B. Thompson, C. H. Spear and W. J. Curtis. The only reference to the saloon question which the platform contained was a demand for the strict enforcement of the mile limit law. Thomas Rickard acted as chairman of the convention and Arthur Elston as secretary. The Republicans will hold their convention Saturday night.

Martin and Jesse H. Steinhart, who compose the team that will try to bring the handsome gold medal to California. They will speak in the following order: Steinhart, Tagliabue, Greeley, Marrack, Morris, Martin. ## NEWS NOTES FROM THE CITY OF ALAMEDA.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 8.—A bill designed especially to affect Alameda, but applying to all cities of the fifth class, has passed the Senate and will be favorably reported by the Assembly committee, doing away with the election of Free Library Trustees and making those officers appointed by the city board. Originally existed the officers named were appointed, but former Librarian Harbourn managed to have the statute amended several sessions since, providing for the election of such trustees.

ALAMEDA POLITICS.

ALAMEDA, Feb. 8.—The Executive Committee of the Harmon Hall Non-Partisan party met last evening at the residence of Attorney G. H. Perry. All the members of the party were present. Henry Muller, who has filled the position of secretary for several years, resigned, and W. B. Hinchman was elected in his place. He vacated the position of vice-chairman, which was filled by the election of Attorney Perry. The committee discussed the municipal campaign, but did not decide upon any action to be taken. A meeting will be held on Saturday night, when it is expected arrangements will be made to call a convention and nominate a ticket.

BUNCO MAN IS CAUGHT IN ALAMEDA.

A. J. Davidson, alias A. J. Gunther, who was arrested in Alameda yesterday for trying to pass a bogus check on Robert Mott of the Alameda Land Company, turns out to be a crook much sought after here.

When brought to the City Prison, Chief Hodgkins immediately identified him as an ex-convict who had served eighteen months at San Quentin for forgery.

The local authorities have been on the trail of Davidson for a week. He was complained of by several people of Oakland among them J. H. Edison, representing the Lincoln Oil Company. Edison indorsed a check for $100 for Davidson, who secured $500 in cash and a certificate of deposit from the Central Bank upon it. Murray then gave the name of W. C. Wilson of Bixbee, Arizona.

When Davidson appeared in the Police court this morning he heard the charge read, and then stated that he was not ready to be examined. The case was continued till tomorrow to be set. Davidson had no attorney.

FRIDAY ..... FEBRUARY 8, 1901

PRACTICAL EXPLORATION.

Sir Henry M. Stanley's recent assertion that the continent of Africa "remains for most practical purposes as unknown as when the Victoria Nyanza and the Congo were undiscovered" should draw our attention to the fact that the same condition of affairs prevails in regard to great tracts of America. It is interesting to know, as the great explorer tells us, that vast districts of terra incognita exist in the polar regions, in parts of South America and in Asia; but it is of far more importance to the citizen of the United States to know that much of his own country remains, to all intents, as unexplored as when Lewis and Clark crossed the continent a century ago. Or, if he would go further afield, there lie in the highlands and forests of Yucatan and Southern Mexico, tracts that appear on no maps. Fame and fortune await the pioneer there, but if he will be satisfied with enough for his wants in the way of a living, it needs only an excursion into the wilderness of the Coast and Sierra ranges of mountains in California to furnish him with all he wants.

Mountain valleys are to be found in the public domain where the rich grasses are now the food of herds of almost wild cattle. If the explorer be in search of a home, why not find it in such a place? To be sure the land will not pay for cultivation as well as the valleys in lower altitudes, and there will be snow in winter, but there will be a good living in it and health and independence. The advantages of such exploration are manifold. No relief expeditions are necessary. The State is directly benefited by the construction of one more home within its borders, and its wealth is increased by the creation of new taxable property.

So far as individual results are concerned, the man who carves out a new home for himself in the virgin forest will have accomplished more for his own happiness and that of the State of which he is a citizen than if he had wasted his energies looking for hidden lakes in Asia or climbing Alpine peaks in Africa.

PRACTICAL PHILOSOPHY.

A new philosopher with an abundant stock of old philosophy has been unearthed in Arizona and the critics have accorded him a place on the list with Socrates and the other sages reaching down the line to modern Emerson. He of course presents the same old theories upon which men have fed and grown happy or dreamed and become miserable. All the deductions of philosophy, however, do not alter the fact that man must toil in order to progress and live—and the Arizona is up to date enough to give a practical coloring to his theories on life and the way to happiness. He does not become hysterical over illusions nor attempt to alter conditions by vague phrases, but happily permeates all his ideas with a vein of sound common sense.

No matter who may philosophize or what course his theories may take, the fact remains that there is much in the rule of life advanced by David Hume: "Do unto others as they would do unto you, but do 'em first." Commercial and industrial success is built upon the principles of a horse trade from the beginning to the end. We may prate in homilies about what ought to be done and how it could be done if things were different, but for the man without a dollar in his pocket no sage has ever yet shown him the way by which he can pay house rent without raising the money. As things are now tending we are not given to philosophy, but must perform regard things from the standpoint of practicability. It is the worker and not the dreamer who finds his way to success and position, and as Carnegie once said: "I did not spend my time thinking about the future, but took energetically hold of what was at hand." And again the late C. P. Huntington made it a rule of life to always keep busy. He once said, "I worked even when I did not get any pay for it."

All the philosophy that was ever ground out can be boiled down to the simple principle which animates the workers in a bee hive, "keep busy," and if one is so unfortunate as not to be able to follow that injunction he will not find any solace in philosophy or any happiness on earth.

Chicago is in the midst of that season when the poet writes of the beautiful snow and the weather prophet records the chunk of the mercury as it drops through the bulb of the thermometer onto the floor. When we look around at our midwinter sunshine, green hills and wild flowers, comparisons are indeed odious—for the other fellow.

The salt trust has raised its prices. It is an ill-wind that blows nobody good though, for the man who is graded as being worth his salt can truthfully say that he has advanced in value during the past few days.

The Dutch are not the only ones who have taken Holland, judging by the internal revenue report showing that several million cases of gin bearing that name were consumed in this country last year.

Despite her temperance proclivities Mrs. Nation seems to be making more brandy smashes daily than any six bartenders can do in a week.

Mrs. Nation will share with the father of the country the honor of having lived to the heights of fame by the use of an ax.

STARBEAMS.
At the recent poultry show was an exhibitor who claims to have set a hen to music.
Don't despair because you've got the grip; think of the spider whose life is always hanging by a thread.
"It is better," chirped the Diah-faced idiot, "to have married a short girl than never to have loved a tall."
"Some men are always referring to 'the mistake of their lives.' The real mistake of their life was in being born."
"Mamma," asked little Nettle, "what is an angel?" "An angel?" Well, an angel is a beautiful girl that flies." "But, mamma, why does papa always call my nurse an angel?" "Hum," responded the mother, after a moment of thought, "your nurse is going to fly immediately."
A self-contented skeptic recently attempted to "josh" an old negro aunt about her religious views. "Do you really believe, aunty," said he, "that people are made out of dust?" "Yes, sah; de Bible says dey is, an' so I b'lieves it." "But what is done in wet weather when there is nothing but mud?" "Den I spects dey makes infidels an' such truck."—Kansas City Star.

LOVE FORSAKEN.
I that was blithe erewhile,
Dreaming the world a lovely lotus isle,
Am one for whom the sun hath lost its smile.
There was a garden place
Wherein, methought, there blossomed every grace
That man might crave to look upon—her face!
And ah, the golden store
Of heart's ease that it brought me! That is o'er,
Since onward 'tis turned for evermore.
I shall go down the years,
Groping through sterile hopes and crowding fears,
To darkling solitude too deep for tears.
—Clinton Scottard, in Harper's Bazar.

FATAL FIGHT OVER GROCERY BILL.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.
NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Charles Yost was stabbed over the heart last night by Fred Hoffman, a groceryman in Hoffman's store. Yost managed to get to his home, where he died in his wife's arms. Hoffman was arrested.
According to the story told by the police, Mrs. Hamill, Mrs. Yost's sister-in-law, went into Hoffman's store to make a purchase. Mrs. Hoffman, the wife of the grocer, was behind the counter and she deducted from the money tendered in payment the sum of thirty-five cents, which she claimed was owed by Mrs. Yost. Mrs. Hamill objected to paying her sister-in-law's alleged bill. Hamill went to the store and demanded the money. Yost soon arrived on the scene. The grocer made an effort to get Hamill and Yost to leave the place, but they refused. In a struggle Yost was stabbed just over the heart.

CLAIMS REWARD FOR FRANK ALLEN.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.
NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—A dispatch to the World from London says:
Inspector Freest of Scotland Yard has filed a claim with the Home Office for $1,000, being the reward offered by the New York authorities for the capture of Frank Allen, who with two others—Holloman and Russell—escaped from Ludlow street jail on July 4, 1897.
Allen was recently convicted in London under the name of Sullivan for snatching a bundle of bank notes from a lady at a bank counter.
Freest recognized Sullivan as Allen and has since conclusively established his identity.

CHINA IS WARNED TO SUBMIT.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.
PEKING, Feb. 8.—The Chinese plenipotentiaries have telegraphed to the court the demands of the Ministers and are awaiting a reply. From remarks made by both Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang it is evident they think the court will carefully consider the conditions proposed.
It has been strongly intimated to the Chinese by more than one of the foreign Ministers that China must agree to the conditions and accept the unpleasant consequences. It is pointed out that the powers are not animated by vindictive motives, as had they been, they would have insisted upon the decapitation of both Prince Tuan and Duke Ian.

CONGRATULATE HOLLAND'S QUEEN.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Hollanders of this city are to have a dinner in the Holland house tomorrow evening to commemorate the marriage of the Queen of Holland. The guests of honor will be Baron von Gevers, the Dutch Minister, and J. R. Planten, Consul-General.
They have sent the following cablegram to the Queen: "Your Majesty's loyal subjects in New York tender her and the illustrious prince consort the most respectful and affectionate congratulations for perfect and continued happiness. Long live the Queen."

CANADA UNEASY ABOUT CABLE.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.
OTTAWA, Ont., Feb. 8.—Hon. William Mullock, Postmaster-General, has given notice of a bill to be presented to amend the Pacific cable act. This bill is for the purpose of arranging Canada's share of the financial obligations for the construction of the cable. Fears are entertained in some quarters that some of the Australian governments may succeed in their efforts to make connection with the Eastern extension cable and in that way alter the basis of the whole scheme.

RUSHING TROOPS TO SOUTH AFRICA.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.
LONDON, Feb. 8.—The Government has requisitioned three of the Castle liners to transport reinforcements to South Africa. The remount department is uncommonly active, its agents buying largely in several parts of the world. Following yesterday's war office announcement recruiting today was brisk.

MAY BE THE MISSING WALDON.

VICTORIA, B. C., Feb. 8.—The keeper of a cigar store near the outer wharf says that a man resembling Waldon, the missing accountant of the San Quentin penitentiary, Cal., was in his store immediately before the sailing of the Mowera for Australia on January 11th. He was accompanied by a woman and two children.

QUARRYMEN OUT ON STRIKE.

Associated Press Dispatch to The Tribune.
YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Feb. 8.—Five hundred quarrymen employed by the Bessemer Limestone Company went on strike today, joining the others of this district who are already out.

DOINGS OF THE ENDEAVORERS.

Edited By the Alameda County Christian Endeavor Union.
The executive committee of Berkeley Christian Endeavor Union held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening at Stiles' Hall. Business of importance with regard to the coming rally to be held tomorrow evening at the First Presbyterian Church was transacted. The two principal speakers will be Dr. Dills and Dr. George C. Adams. There will be a chorus choir of thirty voices, led by James Madril. A rally of the Juniors will be held the following afternoon at the First Congregational Church.
The C. E. Society of the First Presbyterian Church has published a neat little paper covered book which they call the New Year's number of the Society News. H. M. Woodsum is the editor, and Miss Margie S. Smith the manager, and they have reason to be proud of the result of their labors. These books were sold at a recent social and the proceeds put in their missionary box. The table of contents include an editorial, "news," strictly business, lost, found and wanted, personal and a memorial for a member who recently died.
This effort would prove successful in other societies, and in addition to making fun will add a sum to missionary offering.
In response to a letter sent out by the county president concerning the meetings held Christian Endeavor and Decision Day, the letters that he received have been very encouraging. Special program decisions for Christ and increased interest and spiritual life among the members are the result. A correspondent from San Leandro sends these cheering words: "We have not had such an awakening in a long time and we all feel that it was a glorious day." Another says: "The outlook for our society seems more hopeful because of this meeting."

EX-SOLDIERS MEET IN BANQUET HALL.

Camp Colonel Liscum of the Service Men of the Spanish War installed its officers last night in Foresters' Hall, on the corner of Clay and Thirteenth streets. The installation was followed by a banquet which was greatly enjoyed by the guests. The master of ceremonies was T. H. Varney. The officers installed were: Commander, J. Luttrell; vice-commander, A. Valmer; adjutant, Lieutenant Baker; treasurer, E. F. Fannett; chaplain, Rev. Mr. Woods.
The literary and musical features comprised the following: Toast, "Our Flag"; imitations, T. R. Nugent; song, C. L. Thibault; remarks, Lieutenant Turner; music, imitation of music box; song, G. C. Stanley; song, Mr. Mattson.
During intervals in the program refreshments were liberally dispensed. Among the visitors present was a delegation from Camp Fremont of San Francisco and several members of the Thirty-seventh Regiment, U. S. V., who arrived yesterday from Manila.

DEWEY OFFERS A STRONG ATTRACTION.

Manager Stevens of the Dewey has given his patrons a strong melodrama this week in "Wicked London," and judging by the nightly attendance at the popular theater, the play has been appreciated. The story is an interesting one, and the situations are dramatic and striking. The cast is a strong one, and the performance reflects credit upon the Dewey management.

SHE MAKES CHARGES AGAINST HER COUSIN.

Rose Moody-Farr has answered the suit of D. B. Moody to recover $1,328.99 by filing a general denial and a cross-complaint. She claims that the plaintiff, who is her cousin, induced her to invest in flour mill stock upon which she was assessed. He paid the assessment and she transferred the stock to him with the understanding that the assessment would settle the account, so she says.

WILL ARRANGE FOR ANNUAL CAMPFIRE.

Dr. Thomas Addison, manager of the San Francisco General Electric Company, will read a paper on "Trusts and Socialism," before the Men's League of the First Congregational Church, at a meeting to be held in the church chapel next Tuesday evening. A discussion will follow.

The guests are gone the smile slips from the face of the hostess and she gives up to the pain which racks her body. Many a woman entertains and wears a smile while her back aches and her nerves quiver with pain. Surely any medicine which offers relief to women would be worth a trial under such conditions. But when the woman's medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, is offered with the proof of efficacy in thousands of well attested cures, what excuse can then be offered for suffering longer?
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It dries encrusted drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.
"It is with the greatest pleasure I write you the best my mother has received from your Favorite Prescription," says Miss Carrie Johnson, of Lowell, Mass. "After suffering untold misery with uterine disease and nervousness, and had a constant running and stinging noise in her ears. After taking six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,' she was entirely cured."
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets stimulate the liver.

PLUMBERS DO NOT LIKE THE NEW ORDINANCE

James De Fremery
Makes an Offer to Sell a Park.

The Committee of the Whole of the Council last evening took up the matter of a difference of opinion between master plumbers and the Board of Health, and after discussing it for a few minutes discovered it was too deep and delayed action on it indefinitely.

The Health Board prepared an ordinance to regulate plumbing, and the plumbers claimed that it was not only oppressive but absolutely ridiculous.

Mr. Mitchell, representing the plumbers, offered a few amendments last evening which were favored by Councilman Schaffer.

He said he did not know what the proposed changes meant but he would stand by them on the theory that plumbers were more competent to prepare a plumbing ordinance than a lot of doctors who did not know a faucet from a drain pipe. But nothing was done with the matter.

At this stage of the proceedings Mr. Stetson wanted to go home, but Mr. Mott wanted to stay awhile and talk about bonds. He had his way about it and introduced the subject of park bonds first. Mr. Stetson not only objected about staying but he emphatically objected to park bonds in the burian. When he got thoroughly warmed up he said:

"I cannot vote on park bonds tonight or at any other time. We have gone on record as promising not to ask the people to vote on them. When the committee was appointed to look up sites it was with the understanding that we would not force the bond issue and would let the matter rest. I believe in turning the whole thing over to the new administration."

"One of the most absurd things that this Council has done, then," was the report of Councillor, "was to appoint a committee to look into a matter upon which it intended to take no action. This Council has been accused of doing nothing. I think the accusation is just, but I tell you, gentlemen, that all of these things will affect the political fate of every one of us who is in the Council. I want to know if you who think this bond proposition will be accused of moral cowardice. We were elected to do this thing and we ought to do it."

James De Fremery then offered to sell the old de Fremery place, consisting of six blocks, to the city for a public park, for $100,000.

Then it was decided to make the bond subject the special order for next Wednesday night. Stetson suggested that members bring their blankets and Mott replied that if Stetson did not want to stay out after dark the Council might meet during the day.

Appraisers Appointed.

N. A. McConaghy, Anson S. Blake, and Frank Shafter have been appointed to appraise the estate of the late Harriet A. Fish.

$600 FOR $1.00.

A Profitable Investment.

Jno. Blakely of W. Lebanon, Pa., reports that he got more value from $1.00 worth of Grape-Nuts food than from $600 spent in noted hospitals, trying to get well from stomach trouble. He says: "After all my experience, I had to come home thinking there was no cure for me. I was so weak and nervous I could hardly walk, and for three years I hadn't a good night's sleep. I was run down until I only weighed 120 pounds."

"I commenced using Grape-Nuts about a year ago and now I weigh 165 pounds and can do as good a day's work as any one. When I go to bed I sleep all night peacefully and am refreshed in the morning. I use Grape-Nuts food every day and I know it is the greatest blessing that ever was sent to suffering humanity. I believe if it had not been for this food I would have been under the bed before this. There is a reason. No food in existence contains, in a concentrated form, the elements that will rebuild the nerve centers and the brain, as Grape-Nuts, and the beauty of the food is that it is perfectly cooked at the factory and by the process of manufacture is predigested in a natural way, therefore requires but trifling power of the stomach to digest it."

KELLER AND KAHN DO NOT AGREE

The Washington Street
Opening Goes Back
to Council.

There was a discussion of the Washington street opening before the City Council last night. There was considerable talk, with Mr. Mott as the interrogator of the speakers, but nothing was done. The Council met as a Committee of the Whole to listen to the arguments and when it was all over the whole matter was referred back to the Council without recommendation.

M. J. Keller, who favors the opening, and Sol Kahn, who is not exactly against the opening but emphatically objects to the manner in which the Council has been going about it, had a little fight but there was no harm done and both gentlemen insisted that there was no hard feeling. The opponents of the opening based their objections on the City Hall plans, all of them favoring the arcade scheme.

M. J. Keller opened the discussion. He said he was not an owner of land on Washington street but that he had a ten year lease to property on the street, and as such favored the opening of the street as a public necessity, and that he had favored it even before he moved onto the street.

"We open streets in the suburbs," he said, "and why should we not do so in the heart of the city? I believe that the city at large should pay for the land to be taken and that the assessment district for other expenses should be as large as possible."

In answer to questions by Councilman Mott, Mr. Keller said that he would like to see the street opened on a straight line but if that could not be accomplished he would be satisfied with the next best thing. He also favored the location of the City Hall on the west side of the street.

Charles Jurgens, who owns property on San Pablo avenue, spoke on the same lines and was followed by Sol Kahn. Mr. Kahn repeated the statement made by him at a previous meeting of the Council and then turned his attention to Mr. Keller. He said that only those who would be taxed for the opening should have a standing before the Council and for that reason Mr. Keller should be disqualified. He claimed that there was no demand from either the Washington street or San Pablo avenue property owners with but one or two exceptions.

"I want to repeat," said Mr. Kahn, "that the protestants are not adverse to the opening. The thing we object to is the way in which the Council is going about it. Our contention is that the City Hall matter should be disposed of first. Then you have a basis to work upon."

Julius Abrahamson said that Mr. Kahn had voiced his sentiments and he added that he approved the arcade plan for a City Hall.

James De Fremery said a few things that gave the Councilmen food for reflection.

"I live in New York," he said, "but I hope to come back here to my old home to reside permanently in the near future. When I returned here a few days ago, my help but felt disgusted with the city when I smelt the smells that greeted me at Sixteenth street station and after I recovered from that I looked about the town and could not find a single business building of architectural beauty. I say by all means build a City Hall—build it on the arcade plan so that it will be a monument to the city."

Then the Keller-Kahn discussion broke out again. Keller insisted that he did not advocate the opening of Washington street from any selfish motive but that he believed it to be his duty as a citizen to do so and that his public spirit also prompted him. He said that Mr. Kahn by no means represented the interests of the protestants.

This aroused Mr. Kahn. He challenged the members of the Council to state a time when he had made any misrepresentations in connection with the subject. He continued:

"Mr. Keller cannot be said to be as consistent as he is fond of riding his hobby. It is not so many years ago that he had a picture in his store window of a hotel that was to be built on the site of the City Hall and he has been dreaming of it ever since."

Mr. Stetson discouraged further argument. He said he had always stood out for the arcade plan for a City Hall and believed that it was a matter that should be settled before the street opening could be disposed of.

"I believe," he said, "that the people will defeat bonds for a hall on one side of the street which would be little better than a hole in the wall." That ended the talk on that matter.

COUPLE DID NOT ANSWER COMPLAINT.

A default judgment has been entered in the suit of Fred Lippkowsky against Cries and Caroline Carl. The suit was brought to annul the marriage of the defendant. Mrs. Carl is the plaintiff's daughter and he claimed that she was under age when she married Carl. The couple did not answer the suit and there is a serious question if their failure to do so affects their marriage.

ALLENS RECONCILED AND HAVE FLOWN.

William Allen and wife are believed to have become reconciled and left Oakland for their home in Ontario, Canada. Mrs. Allen is the woman who eloped with Charles M. Reade. The charge of unlawful cohabitation against Reade was set for today before a jury in the Police Court. The court having learned of the disappearance of Allen and wife, a jury was summoned.

Day after day since the arrest on January 21st William Allen has haunted the police office and Chief Hodgkins' private office. When he failed to appear yesterday it was surmised that something had happened. Search revealed that both Allen and wife had taken an eastbound train yesterday.

Reade is at liberty, in jail and it is understood there will be no prosecution.

In the Police Court today the charge against Reade was dismissed.

MACBETH AND SPELLING GET INTO A FIGHT.

Friends Interfere and Avert Shedding of Blood.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 8.—The dull and gloomy corridors of the Capitol were enlivened yesterday afternoon by an encounter between T. Carl Spelling and Assemblyman Macbeth.

Mr. Spelling is very much interested in primary election laws, and has prepared one or more for adoption by the Legislature.

He met Mr. Macbeth near the door of the Assembly and accused him of trying to smother his bills. The Assemblyman indignantly denied the charge, and, as Spelling repeated it, called the primary law-maker a liar.

Spelling ignored that somewhat common epithet, and went on arguing the question. When he came around to a point where it was convenient to put in his allegation again, he repeated the statement that Macbeth was trying to smother his bills.

Thereupon Macbeth struck Mr. Spelling a blow in the face, and assumed the attitude of one who would say "Lay on Macbeth, and damned be he who first draws blood from thee."

But Spelling was not of the stuff that lays on. Instead, he stepped back, placed his hand in his hip pocket and drew forth a long black pipe that he has been smoking for time beyond which the memory of man runneth not to the contrary.

Assemblyman Macbeth, however, did not follow suit. He merely turned his back to the combatants and sternly ordered Spelling to put up his gun. Mr. Spelling reluctantly obeyed, and Macbeth escaped another tragedy.

Spelling enough, there were no representatives of the keepers of saloons, cigar stands and other places where there machines are kept present to protest against a favorable report from the committee on the passage of this bill, a fact which is attributed to an intention on the part of the nickel-in-the-slot men to concentrate their efforts for the defeat of the measure in one or the other of the two houses of the Legislature.

It is not believed that these men will permit this bill to go through without a strenuous effort against its passage somewhere along the line. It is estimated that one of these machines so located that it is fairly well patronized will produce for the owner $100 a year.

That would be $100 a year, or $200 in the two years between now and the convening of the Legislature.

As there are thousands of these little nickel catching devices in use in the State, it can easily be seen that the aggregate income from them is enormous. For this reason it seems most unlikely that the bill will be allowed to go through by default. The third house has been looking for the presence of a strong lobby to defeat it, and there is much surprise that it has not yet made itself manifest.

NICKEL-IN-SLOT MEN LYING LOW.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 8.—A meeting of the Judiciary Committee of the Assembly was held this afternoon for the purpose of discussing the Franklin bill prohibiting the keeping or use of nickel-in-the-slot machines.

Strangely enough, there were no representatives of the keepers of saloons, cigar stands and other places where there machines are kept present to protest against a favorable report from the committee on the passage of this bill, a fact which is attributed to an intention on the part of the nickel-in-the-slot men to concentrate their efforts for the defeat of the measure in one or the other of the two houses of the Legislature.

THE ANTI-DOPE LAW MEETING WITH FAVOR.

A Legislator Who Has No Use for Grand Juries.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 8.—The bill introduced by Mr. Kelley to prevent tampering with animals and the administering of poison or drugs to horses and other live stock and animals, except for medicinal purposes, has passed both Houses. His bill is known as the "Anti-dope" law, and was deemed to be necessary in order to stop the practice of injecting morphine or other drug into any horse entered, or about to be entered in a race, or at any agricultural park exhibition or competition.

The law makes a violation of any of its provisions a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the State penitentiary for a period of not less than one year nor more than five.

One of the notable incidents in yesterday's legislative proceedings was the introduction into the Senate by Senator Caldwell of a resolution of a proposal to form a constitutional amendment providing for the abolition of Grand Juries.

Senator Caldwell made a speech in support of the amendment, which he said was not only expressive of his own views but was in accord with the report of a recent Grand Jury of Riverside county.

The Riverside jurors were of opinion that Grand Juries are useless, and have been outgrown.

NOT CRUELTY TO KILL A CHICKEN THIEF.

To kill a dog caught in the net of a stealing your chickens does not constitute cruelty to animals.

That fact in law was established in the case of John Grancy Jr. in the Police Court today.

Grancy went to feed his chickens recently when he found a neighbor's dog had been feasting on one of them. The canine was enjoying the last few bites of the chicken, and in fact had chicken on the brain when Grancy picked up a club and with one blow on the dog's cranium killed the thief.

Police Judge Smith held that since the dog had been killed instantly, the animal experienced no pain, hence there was no cruelty.

The case was dismissed and the defendant discharged.

APPROPRIATION FOR THE STATE HEALTH BOARD.

Senate Will Favor an Allowance of $100,000.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 8.—The representatives of the commercial bodies of San Francisco, who visited the capital during the early part of the week for the purpose of dissuading the Health and Hospital committee from reporting favorably on the bill to appropriate $100,000 for the use of the State Board of Health appear to have had their trouble for their pains.

The Health Committee of the Senate, before which body the San Francisco business men employed all their arguments on Tuesday night, yesterday reported the bill back to the Senate with the simple endorsement "that it do pass." There was a minority report to be sure, signed by Doctors Pace and Rowell, recommending that it do not pass. The report of the minority read as follows:

"In 1893, the Legislature passed an emergency Act during the excitement attending the introduction of cholera on our Eastern coast, creating a fund of $50,000 to be used by the State Board of Health under the direction of the Governor. In seven years, there were used of this fund $12,593.44. Since the beginning of 1900, there have been used $3,201.75, leaving a balance in the fund of $35,205.25. This, in our judgment, is sufficient to meet any emergency likely to arise in the near future, and if any emergency should arise, the State Board of Health would have the power to authorize the necessary expenditure. The raising by taxation of $100,000 at this time for possible but improbable use we consider inadvisable and calculated to augment the feeling of uncertainty and fear in California and elsewhere relative to the health conditions in San Francisco."

The view taken by the minority of the Committee on Health was very strenuously urged at the meeting at which the gentlemen from San Francisco appeared. They harped on that chord throughout the meeting. Dr. Matthews, secretary of the State Board of Health, commented that view of the subject with great earnestness and readiness, stating that the remainder of the appropriation of '93 was a mere drop in the bucket. He declared that the single case of bubonic plague should be in San Francisco the city and State should be willing to expend every cent in their treasuries to stamp it out and prevent the spread of the disease. The doctor's argument appears to have prevailed so far as the Committee is concerned, and the battle will now have to be fought out on the floor of the Senate.

During the course of the argument before the Senate, Dr. Matthews consented to the withdrawal of Bill 234, which is an Act to provide for the appointment of a State quarantine officer by the State Board of Health for the city and county of San Francisco.

In the Assembly yesterday the Committee on Health and Quarantine submitted a report withdrawing this bill. The report stated that the Committee had called on San Francisco and the Federal quarantine station at Angel Island and had found that the United States Government had appropriated $400,000 for the equipment of that station, which was modern in all respects, thoroughly efficient, and able to meet all demands which are liable to be made upon it. The Committee was, therefore, of the opinion that there was no need for the appointment of a State quarantine officer, and the establishment of a State quarantine station.

The withdrawal of this bill has been seized upon by the enemies of the Governor and of the so-called "plague bill" as an evidence of the weakness of the Governor in the Legislature, but as Dr. Matthews was very careful to say, it was never the intention of the framers of the bill now before the Senate to establish a State quarantine at San Francisco.

The bill now before the Senate is an appropriation for a large sum as $100,000 was that the State Board of Health might be armed to do battle with the plague, should it put in an appearance at San Francisco.

The gentlemen from San Francisco, while they were earnest and bent on performing a public service, learned several things from Dr. Matthews in the course of the talk that they were not prepared to cope in argument with a man who was so deeply versed in the subject under discussion that it is not improbable that they reflected that they had come to the capital poorly equipped for the work in hand.

They came on the assumption that because Governor Cass had asked for an appropriation of $100,000 for the State Board of Health he intended to back up the State Board of Health in the subject under discussion, and that the gentlemen actually stated that he understood that the money was to go to the equipment of a team launch and to the salaries of politicians who would be given places aboard the vessel and at a station on shore. Whatever the merit or the demerit of the plan proposed, namely, the appropriation of $100,000, there was, as Dr. Matthews said nothing whatever in the bill to warrant the assumption that a State quarantine station would be established. The gentlemen from San Francisco have all gone home, and the prospects seem to be that the plague bill, or certainly the one carrying the appropriation, will pass the Senate.

BUNGO MAN BEGS FOR MERCY IN COURT.

The pathetic sight of one who has enjoyed a good training and in whose face were traces of refinement, sitting in a prisoner's dock, was presented in the Police Court today in the case of J. W. Davis.

Davis had come from Portland, Oregon, where he had a wife and six children in destitute circumstances. Work had been slack there in his occupation—that of a drygoods clerk. He came here recently and finding but little to do, opened a temporary employment bureau. He needed money, and soon two men of Swedish extraction stepped in and were offered positions somewhere up north in return for the payment of $2 each. Hans and Jans were lipped. They paid the ducats, but later discovered there was something wrong.

An investigation revealed the truth of their suspicions, and Davis was landed in jail. He pleaded guilty in the Police Court and went bitterly.

In mitigation of the sentence, which is to be pronounced tomorrow, Attorney James A. Johnson, who through friends of the accused was induced to plead clemency for the man, called L. N. Gross and A. W. Creik as witnesses.

Both testified to Davis' exceptionally good character and reputation in the past. Davis had been employed for six years with one house in Portland.

PRODUCT OF BLIND MEN'S WORK OPPOSED

Manufacturers Say It Interferes With the Outside Trades.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 8.—The broom manufacturers are her in force, and also representatives of the management of the Home for Adult Blind. F. Zan, of Zan Bros. & Co., John P. Henry of the California Broom Co., and P. I. Sheehan, all manufacturers of brooms, came up from the city yesterday to appear before the Committee on Buildings and Grounds to urge the passage of the bill presented in the Senate by Burnett of San Francisco to amend the Act establishing the Home for Mechanical Trades for the Adult Blind in the State of California. The making of brooms is one of the employments or occupations of the inmates of the Home. Large quantities of the product of this costless labor are sent out from the institution, so it is claimed by the broom-makers, and thrown on the market. The broom men declare that it is ruinous to the trade. They cannot compete with an establishment that is supported by the State, and does not have to pay for its labor. Therefore, they cause to be introduced a bill designating the trades that shall be taught in the Home for the Adult Blind. It contains the following conditions: "Provided, further, that the products of said Home shall be sold only to the State, the counties of the State, municipalities and public institutions of said State and provided further that it shall be the duty of the State, the counties, municipalities and public institutions of said State to purchase the product of said Home when needed and practicable."

The foregoing, it will be observed, if incorporated in the law, would act as an inhibition of the sale of the product of the Home to private houses, firms or persons, and would therefore relieve the manufacturers of the competition of which they complain.

John P. Irish is the factotum of the management of the Home. He is here with Superintendent Sanders, and these two appeared before the Committee last night to protest against the restriction sought to be placed upon the manufacture of brooms in the Home. Today the committee will hear the other side of the case, as represented by Mr. Zan and his companions. The latter contend that the blind people should not confine their labors to the making of brooms to the extent now permitted, but should be made to learn all of the callings set forth in the law, which include the making of horse and scrub brushes, harness, doormats, baskets, mattresses, clusters and mops.

Mr. Zan says that if the inmates of the Home were required to make all these things in their just proportions and management was required to sell them only to the State for use in the State institutions there would be plenty of work for the blind persons, and in all likelihood all the products would be used up by the State institutions. The visiting delegation is also interested in other bills, such as the measures introduced to prevent the introduction of the product of penal institutions of other States.

They say that in Wisconsin, for instance, there is a State institution the management of which not only has its labor free of cost but receives in addition from the State 40 cents a day for the support of each of the laborers confined in the institution.

It is pointed out that it is hopeless to attempt to compete with such an establishment as that, and the Legislature is asked to make such laws as will protect home industry against the importation of such products.
